LaGrange County, Indiana

Nestled in the Northeast corner of the state just a short drive north from the greater Fort Wayne area and east of the Elkhart/ South Bend area resides our rural haven. Home to several thriving towns, flourishing manufacturing facilities of every size, commercial and niche agriculture, and a booming hub for tourism in the town of Shipshewana- we offer a multitude of career opportunities for people from every walk of life.

LaGrange County truly has something to offer everyone! Countryside views straight out of a magazine with all the comforts of Home – plentiful lakes, trails to stay active, boutique shopping in downtown districts, quaint coffeehouses, unmatched local eateries and so much more.

How we operate...

LaGrange County Economic Development Partnership collaborates regularly with the Northeast Indiana Regional Partnership, headquartered in Fort Wayne, Indiana. LaGrange County is one of eleven counties in the Northeast Indiana region; other counties included are Dekalb, Steuben, Noble, Kosciusko, Whitley, Allen, Wabash, Huntington, Wells and Adams.

We also have partnerships with LaGrange County and its municipalities including LaGrange, Wolcottville, Topeka, and Shipshewana. We promote and drive economic development activities in these entities with a constant and ongoing goal of community prosperity.

-Our Organizational Partners-

we are unique.

We're on a mission to improve the quality of life for the citizens of LaGrange County through the responsible growth of business and industry. In this case, for our business and industry to keep its momentum moving forward, we must prioritize building a sustainable and county-wide housing strategy, fostering entrepreneurship, and developing our workforce.

Housing, entrepreneurship, and workforce development are fundamental in the future growth of LaGrange County and Northeast Indiana as a whole. We are excited to aid locally on these initiatives so that we can continue to build on our successes for generations to come!

If you're a business, industry, philanthropic organization, individual, etc. and you are passionate in your support of LaGrange County's future, we would love to build a partnership. Together we can continue to build a strong future for our beautiful and unique community.

As a 501(c)(3), your investment support in the LCEDC is a tax-deductible contribution. You are not just investing in our organization; you're making an investment in the growth of our community!

With your investment support we can continue to take on the big issues and build a better tomorrow for your company, workforce, and all current and future residents that will call LaGrange home for generations to come!
